

The Nightingale

MALMÖ UNIVERSITY

MENTORING

Conference April 27 2010 in Malmö, Sweden

A conference on the mutual benefit of mentoring

Mentoring programmes in different forms have developed during recent years; for children, youth, seniors, entrepreneurs & business leaders and students. Regardless the form, the mentorship is always a meeting between two people, a social process and a developmental opportunity for both the mentor and the mentee.

The mutual benefit of mentoring will be the focus of this conference. The conference will highlight mentoring for different target groups and also explore the societal benefits of mentoring.

The mentoring conference is arranged by the newly started Nightingale Mentoring Network and hosted by Malmö University. The conference is based on the experiences of The Nightingale mentoring programme which started in 1997 in Malmö for students and children. The Nightingale has spread to many countries throughout Europe and the model has also been developed to cover different target groups (read more: www.mah.se/nightingale).

Aims of the conference

- To increase the knowledge about mentoring
- To explore the mutual benefit of mentoring
- To exchange experiences and share good practice

Contents of the conference

The conference will include plenary sessions and smaller workshops. The morning will feature key note speaker Amos Carmeli, national director of the Perach mentoring programme which started in Israel 1972. The afternoon will be divided into four workshops focused on different aspects of mentoring.

Target Groups

- Anyone generally interested in mentoring
- Anyone who is interested in starting a mentorship programme / project
- Decision makers and officials in cities, regions and universities.

Location

The conference will take place at Malmö University, Teacher Education, Nordenskiöldsgatan 10 in Malmö, Sweden.
